NEVARES ON PROTECTION.

From a desk in the City University there comes a voice unknown to us all, propounding dogmas that sooner or later must find echo in our Legislatures, and materially alter the whole trade and industry of Buenos Ayres. That the trade and commerce of the Plate thrives on the indolence and extravagance of Argentines there can be no manner of doubt, for if our imports were limited to mere life necessities, we might shut up our Custom-house and turn out the clerks to the sheep-farms in the partidos. No country in the world to-day depends more on its foreign imports than Buenos Ayres. All our magnificent shops are filled from floor to roof with costly goods from Europe. Even our rudest staples are imported; and we have witnessed seasons when the very meat for our market had to be imported from the Banda Oriental.

The thoughtful Argentine must necessarily pause at the sight of his breakfast table:

The beefsteaks from the Banda Oriental.

The potatoes from Rouen and Bordeaux.

The bread from Valparaiso flour.

The milk from Aylesbury, England.

The butter from Cork, Ireland.

The coffee from Brazil; the tea from China.

The very salt from Cadiz.

The sugar from Hamburg or New York.

The table cloth from Belfast.

The teapot and spoons, plates, knives and forks from England.

The coal that cooked his breakfast from Newcastle.

In fact, the only Argentine staple employed in an Argentine breakfast is water.

The fact seems to be that Argentines are all intellect and no industry; cows and sheep, and horses and mares, if the richest, are after all the most dangerous of staples. Our worthy Rosario correspondent the other day very sharply remarked that the high price of beef in Rosario is a good sign for the country. Enveloped in grand theories about free trade and progressive civilization, we find our legislators obliged to raise their own salaries to make both ends meet. The indigent Provinciano so long as he remains in his province knows little about high-heeled boots, costly opera cloaks and patent silver-clasped umbrellas, but he is prosperous, contented and happy. Bring him down to Buenos Ayres, and his hotel bill for a month will eat up a whole year's income in Rioja or Catamarca. Thus it is that the very life interests of the nation are passing from the legislature to the school room, and school boys start up to teach us facts too solemn to be discarded. Protection at the present stage of affairs means privation and starvation; the country has grown so in everything save native industry that it requires indeed a very clear head to say where or how to begin now, at the eleventh hour.

Mr. Alejo de Nevares, junr., has published in a pamphlet form his views on the importance of a protective policy in the Argentine Republic, for the purpose of fomenting native industry in the country, which is at present expiring under the mistaken free trade policy of Congress. The pamphlet in question is very ably written, and reflects much credit on the writer. The Professor in the University of political economy, it appears, is a protectionist, and a society composed chiefly of University students has been formed, all the members binding themselves to buy Argentine native manufactured cloths, gloves, &c. Although it is difficult to agree with all the theories of Mr. Nevares, still he points with such just severity to the rude negligence of our products, the lazy, slovenly way in which everything is got up for the market, that his paper merits attention. As regards the hide trade he considers it on its last legs, and soon we shall be in the same difficulty about hides that we were a month ago about meat: a country the richest in the whole world in live stock was the other day without meat in its market for the population. Buenos Ayres, he says, is all 'estrangero,' nothing national; everything we get from abroad, and everything we have to pay treble for. We are entirely at the mercy of the import market, and as for national industry it is a myth. Look at the Argentine Government, what does it for home industry? Our Civil Code was printed in the States, although printers here offered for the same price and terms. Government bought soldiers' boots at 3 pats. from an English house; a native shoemaker offered to supply for 22 reals, the Government accepted the bid. The English firm then offered to supply the boots for 20 rls.; the native maker alleged that he could not possibly make them for the money, and that at 22 rls. they left no profit. Government however accepted the English firm bid and the native shoemaker went smash. Soon after the English firm stated that at the price, 20 rls., no more soldiers' boots could be supplied, and the firm could only go on supplying at 3 pats.; Government was obliged to accept the 3 pats. bid, as the native manufacturer was done up. The same firm that so shut up the native shoemaker is now supplying the army uniform to the Government, an article in former years that was always made in this city by 300 to 400 Argentine women who thereby supported their families; to-day they are beggars, and in abject misery. Mr. Nevares shrewdly points to the ancient Navigation Laws of England as the most protective in the world, and, as what built up British greatness. Prussia, he says, owes everything to protection. Spain and Portugal were ruined by imitating English free trade. The United States after the war adopted the severest protection, "Everything (said the American statesman) we consume we can produce ourselves, therefore avast free trade until we pay off what we owe!" and since we Argentines imitate the Americans in everything else, why do not also imitate them in this? Mr. Nevares concludes by asking Argentines to strike out for themselves, to protect their own industries and give over importing everything they eat, drink, use, consume or touch. We commend the pamphlet to merchants.

Exchange, as you can well imagine is dull on account of no steamer leaving for Europe. On your city, however, it has been easily done at ¼ per cent, and in our market here the discount may be considered as firm at the rates of 8½ to 9 per cent.

In produce I have nothing whatever to report, it may be consequent on the bad state of the weather which has prevented many from going to the Barracas.

Another lame duck has turned up in the shape of the French barque General Chancy, that had also met with heavy weather at Cape Horn and having sprung leak, yards carried away, has put back here in distress, and also had to throw overboard part of her cargo; this vessel was on a voyage from Marseilles to San Francisco with a general cargo of merchandize.

"Poor Liffey" the Captain of the schooner Comercio de Rocha who was occupied in saving the cargo of this steamer returned here yesterday and reports that the hull has completely disappeared, and that nothing but the machinery remains.

An accident occurred on the Contra Uruguay Railway yesterday, yet it can scarcely be called an accident, as it appears that some man with the intention of committing suicide threw himself on the line as one of the trains was coming up; the unfortunate man was caught by the cow catcher and smashed to pieces.

An accident also took place yesterday through the carelessness of one of our Tramway (Paso del Molino) men, a child was run over and killed on the instant.

We are in a mess here with bad weather, and you will be surprised to hear for want of theatres. The Siberian Minstrels have been obliged to put off their performance to an indefinite date, much to the regret of many who were anxiously expecting a repetition of what so amused them.

NAVAL COURTS OF INQUIRY IN THE RIVER PLATE.

In a very short space of time there has been lost on the coasts of this river three valuable steamers with heavy amount of cargo, and in one instance a serious loss of life; and in each case those in command have been tried and honourably acquitted by naval courts. It must seem very strange to those who are not cognizant of the laws of Great Britain how a body of intelligent men can exonerate officers from all blame who lose ships under such peculiar circumstances; and even to those who know all the facts of the case it appears that there must be a determination not to in any way injure one of the cloth. We will take for example the R.M.S. Liffey, which with a valuable cargo was lost last month, and whose officers have gone home cleared of all blame in this matter, when it is well known that some parties state that if greater precaution had been taken the ship would never have gone on shore at Jose Ignacio. Apart from this, how can any body of practical men decide that an officer is justified in running a ship eleven knots through the water in a dense fog so that the man on the bridge could not see the men on the forecastle, a distance of about 40 yards, and in a river where numbers of ships are cruizing or at anchor? we would ask if the Liffey instead of going on the rocks had run into any ship and sent every soul to a watery grave, could any of those men who sat at that court have relieved the officers from blame? and could they have said that everything had been done required of a skilful seaman? But there is another point which seems peculiar; at 8 a.m. the Liffey by careful bearings was abreast of Cape St. Mary's lighthouse, and a course was set to take the ship one mile clear to the S, of Lobos, and after this, at a quarter to nine, only three-quarters of an hour after being abreast of Cape St. Mary, the course was altered thirteen degrees to the westward, although no land had been seen or a cast of the lead taken or any apparent motive to lead a careful navigator to suppose he was too far from the land; but even when the thick fog came on if instead of steering more in shore the ship's head had been kept off and any accident had occurred, we could have felt some precaution had been used, but from all information we have received up to the present it seems pretty certain that there was great blame to some person or persons for the loss of this fine ship and cargo, and we trust that if it should be the misfortune to have to call another naval court it will not be composed of men of the cloth alone.

Yours,

Justicia.

THE ARCHBISHOP'S BILL.

The head of the Argentine Church, in his capacity as member of the lower house of Parliament, has drawn up a Bill to prohibit all work on Sundays and holidays. The Bill was duly laid on the table of the House and has undergone the form of a first reading.

The idea is a most excellent one. Sunday traffic should be put down, but the Bill drawn up by his lordship will not achieve that; in its present form it will never pass into law. By the clauses of the Bill all the world and his wife are prohibited from working on Sundays and holidays, with the sole exception of that part of the community that can lay claim to the name, style or title of Apothecary; all such persons have the privilege of working on Sundays and on holidays also. His lordship is not very clear as to what class of apothecaries his prerogative extends; a person claiming such a title in Ireland must not only pass an examination in Pharmacy, he must also pass in medicine, surgery, midwifery and anatomy, as laid down by act of Parliament during the reign of the third George, whereas a man without any of these qualifications can lay claim to the title of chemist and druggist, and yet not to that of pharmaceutical chemist. The three grades are improperly called apothecaries; does his lordship's bill extend to all? Here we have licentiates, professors and M. Ds. all commonly called apothecaries; the Lord Mayor of the city, for instance, is the dispensing apothecary at the female hospital, at a salary of twelve hundred paper-dollars per month; notwithstanding his M. D. degree, the Archbishop's Bill would evidently allow the Lord Mayor to work at the hospital on Sundays, but the nurses dare not think of working. The doctors in private practice would also seem to be excluded, as would also the butchers hotelkeepers, confectioners, carriage drivers, bakers, watermen, newspaper deliverers and a host of other callings just as necessary to health and existence as the privileged apothecaries.

Clergymen as a rule work harder on Sundays than on working days.

If it is sinful to work on Sundays, it must be trifold sinful to elect members of Parliament on such days, and a thousand times more sinful to have elections at the very church doors; the Pope recommends the clergy not to interfere in elections. There is the spirit of wisdom in the Pope's recommendation, for the less a clergyman meddles with mundane affairs the more he is respected—out of his Church he is out of his element.

As his lordship the Archbishop has given up his mind to legislation he should have been more careful in the wording of his Bill; no person will object to his putting down Sunday traffic, but his own colleagues and elbow friends will object to the Bill he has framed.

Dick.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Marker, score a bull's eye for Mr. Carvalho! News from Europe to the 13th instant was received yesterday through the American Agency. Sleswig Question looks very blue. Plucky little Denmark is preparing to fight, and Germany, with the calmness of strength, says she will stick to her resolution to send all who won't be Germans out of Schleswig. The other powers are all looking on shivering in their shoes. Russia has told John Bull that she will abide by the decision of those powers to whom Lord Derby appealed respecting her proceedings in Asia. Mighty likely! Who tore up the Black Sea Treaty in J. B's. nostrils? Who promised him on the word of a Czar that she would not annex Khiva? and who annexed it afterwards? Credulity thy name is Bull. The rest of the news is mostly about the reception of Spanish Ambassadors as the telegram calls them (Republics cannot send Ambassadors) who seem to be fluttering all over Europe. Bazaine has left Belgium and settled down amongst the Dutchmen, which shows his sense—'for they are jolly good fellows.' War matters in Spain seem at a dead lock, probably for want of 'tin.' Brazilian frigate Independencia at last launched safely at Millwall.

Mud, slush, drizzle and dullness were again to the fore yesterday. Despair of the weather ever clearing up again is beginning to take possession of the public mind, and unless a change take place soon, the rain will do quite as much damage to the camp as the 'Seca.' The only consolation is that lots of rain is always healthy in these latitudes, and may ensure us somewhat against an epidemic in the summer.

We publish in another column an indignant letter from a Montevidean ship-captain in answer to some severe remarks on that 'gremio' made in a recently published letter from our correspondent 'Taffy.' Has any subscriber ever been 'Hamleted?'

Mr. Novares's pamphlet on Protection, to which we refer in our leading columns, is worthy of the attentive perusal of our political economists and trading classes. Although there is a great deal of truth in Mr. Novares's pamphlet, experience leads us to doubt if the blister of Protection would assuage, much less cure, the evils he complains of. There is neither producing power, nor population, no "go" enough in the country yet to render a trial of Protection safe. The bare thought of what the Custom House receipts would sink to after a year or two of thorough going Protection is enough to make Mr. Cortinez faint.

'I Lombardi,' though not one of Verdi's best productions, contains some very good and taking music, the onus of which falls upon the choruses, and the highly satisfactory manner in which they got through their work on Saturday evening at the Calle Corrientes Theatre is worthy of all commendation. Sr. Bimboni has evidently begun to see the utility of careful drilling, and the result is that the first performance of an opera has seldom been gone through in such a perfect manner. The quartette in the first and the trio in the third act are the gems of the opera. The latter piece was given in a most masterly manner, Sr. Aramburu's melodious voice being heard to great advantage. This singer has taken a firm hold of the sympathies of the Buenos Ayrean public, and deservedly so, as whatever he sings, he sings with care, never losing sight of a good point, at the same time never overacting his part, but carrying it through in a tasteful and gentlemanlike manner. Mme. Bianchi was successful in her rendering of the music allotted to Giselda, the dream song in the fourth act being very nicely given. The rest of the artists were well up to the mark, and we must not overlook the merit of a violin solo by Sr. Sinsoillez.

Messrs. Rubio and Foley's 'solicitud' for a 7 per cent guarantee from Government on their Rio Lujan Railway was presented to Congress on Monday and sent to Committee. Respecting the refusal of the Executive to accept the resignation of Messrs. Moneta and Lindmark, the House resolved to call up the Minister of Interior to-day (Wednesday) to have an explanation. The Budget of the Finance department was then taken up, and good progress made in voting it. The Finance Minister opposed a Custom House at Cordoba, but the House decided that the Law creating it should be carried out.

The Nacional says that Mr. Huergo, now in London, reports favourably on the prospect of getting our Mortgage Bank Cedulas on the London market. We have no advices on the subject. There is so much row now going on about this security, and so many unbusiness like and impossible projects for bolstering up the stock launched for public comment that the market is getting wearied, and the stock suffers. We agree with 'A Broker' who wrote in Sunday's issue that the best way to serve the Cedula is to 'let it alone.' It will and must find its proportionate level with the rate of money, and no amount of 'banging' or 'bulling,' or artificial legislation about it can drive it permenently off that level. The weak point with the Cedula for the market is its inlimited emission, but it is too late to rectify that now. The market has taken it for better for worse.

The approaching concert by the "Lira" Society is attracting much attention in fashionable circles. Amongst the fair amateurs to perform we notice the names of Mdlles. Duportal, Irigoyen, Sarratea, Pagola, Torres, and Sosnz in a piece for six pianos; Miss Serrantes a solo on the harp, Miss Arana on the violin, and Miss Montero on the piano. Mdlles. Obligado, Amoroso and Amadeo will sing. The gentlemen amateurs are Messrs. Pellegrini, Oyuela, Serna, Rosenthal, Zumaran and Lamas.

A great action at law to recover the value of 400,000 oranges is about to be taken against the purser of the Doña Francisca, who, on arriving at Asuncion from Montevideo, ordered them, to be delivered at Angostura in 12 hours afterwards. The steamer could not get coal and was detained 15 days, the oranges all going to the bad. The purser will neither play nor pay, hence the action.

The reports of the Harvest all over the world are positively glorious, and the universal Plenty cannot fail to give us a lift in the Plate. To France alone her magnificent harvest this year will make a difference in her favour over last year of £15,000,000. The States, Russia, Germany, Italy and Great Britain have also been blessed with superabundance. This splendid news suggests cheaps cakes for a long time to come, and our friend Mr. Bieckert will supply us with cheap ale. What the purchasing power of a paper dollar may become in this reign of Plenty offers food for the most pleasing reflection. Some say we shall have dollars and penny loaves kicking about the streets of Buenos Ayres before Christmas Day. Fine times for bankers and bakers!

The activity and zeal of the new Justice of Peace at Flores, Mr. Dorr, are the theme of general admiration in the Village of the Plain. If all the 'Jueces' were like Mr. Dorr, robbers and bad characters would have to emigrate 'en masse.' Those addicted to the worship of Bacchus, even in the mildest way, ought to learn to walk steadily in their cups before they take a situation near Flores. A British merchant living on the F R had to get up at an unearthly hour yesterday and make for Sweet Auburn, to release his gardener, who was in pawn there for taking more than was good for his nerves on Monday evening.

Our Own Correspondent in London informs us that the Committee of Plymouth Church has accepted the Revd. Mr. Beecher's explanations of his little "affaire de cœur' with that "beloved Christian woman," Mrs. Tilton. The general opinion of the English and New York press is, that such a lame and impotent conclusion of the case will not whitewash the distinguished divine as thoroughly as his very numerous friends could wish. We have not read the case, so can pass no personal opinion on its merits.

The idea of a Swimming Bath at the Once finds much favour. Of course the lake of rain water is only a joke, but a nice Bath, supplied with Pipe water, would pay well in the heat of summer when perspiring brokers, done up barraqueros and exhausted estancieros would pay any money for a wash, after business was concluded.

There was little or nothing in the morning papers yesterday about the rumoured fizzle in the provinces, so we suppose the affair is a mere flash in the pan.

There was a mad dog flare-up in Calle Parque on Monday. LAST REPLY TO "A DANE".

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 18th, 1874.

To the Editors of the STANDARD.

Gentlemen,

Permit me once more your columns for the following explanations to throw light on the matter in question and clear away the clouds with which national prejudice and defective knowledge have surrounded it.

A Dane's reply apparently proves that he had only in view the expression of bitter feelings and by no means a calm discussion of facts.

I refrain from giving further details in reference to the matter in question and confine myself to the origin and course of this dispute, and the conclusion that every impartial reader is forced to arrive at.

In your issue of September 6th I published a few lines with statistics taken from the German census of 1870 as well as some other rectifications—never contradicted. A Dane on this account in his article of September 12th blames me for lack of modesty!!—Unfortunately—as may be proved by my original letter—a typographical error had occurred in its publication, the compositor omitting the marked words in the following passage: forming consequently only about one-seventh of the population "of the whole province and about one-third of that" of the duchy of Schleswig. Now every body easily saw, if not the real meaning of the passage, at least the existence of a typographical error; a Dane, however, forged a weapon out of this trifling circumstance to attack me for want of circumspection. His weapon has only turned against himself as well as his former reproaches, the more so as he forgot, that in his first article he had acknowledged receipt of the right tenor of my statements by repeating them! As for my antagonist's capital joke of free country and free and enlightened Press—risum teneatis amici!—for those who prefer a free and licentious Press to the independent Press of Great Britain and Germany, shackled by the laws of public morality and inspired by the spirit of true liberty and knowledge, I compassionate his choice.

My opponent gave some vague data out of his school reminiscences concerning the history of the duchy of Schleswig, the proportion between the differents nationalities, the results of the election in the Schleswig district, the Prague treaty &c., which I refuted or rectified without exception in my article of September 16th by historic facts and reliable data. I beg to state that a Dane has not endeavoured to contradict even one of my statements.

I consequently consider myself entitled to declare as the result of this discussion the establishment of the following facts:—

I. That only one-third of the duchy of Schleswig is inhabited by a Danish population, that therefore the duchy is 'not' 'pure Scandinavian, as stated by my antagonist.

II. That in 1386 the connexion between the duchies and Denmark was only a 'loose' feudal one.

III. That in 1460 the King of Denmark (and his male descendants of whom the last died in 1863) was freely elected Duke of Schleswig Holstein on condition that they remained for ever and ever undivided, and that consequently the assertions of a Dane "that the two duchies were only united in 1864, that Schleswig has been wrested in 1864 from the mother-country Denmark and annexed to Holstein" are falsifications of history.

IV. That the conditions of 1460 were broken by Denmark, and that only the 'kicking' of the rights of the united duchies led to their elevation in 1848 and to the war of 1864.

V. That Prussia has taken all necessary steps in order to execute the stipulations of article 5 of the Prague treaty.

As for the war of 1848|50 I beg to return to 'a Dane' his respective question, for as freely as I confess that it reflects no credit on the then disunited and weak Germany. 'A Dane' knows only too well that the duchies have not been subdued by his people and still less the Prussians have been beaten by the same, and that Denmark owed the restitution of her power only to the arbitrary politics of Russia and Austria who forced Prussia to refrain from a national and strong policy, and to disarm in union with the latter power the Schleswig Holstein army in order to restore peace.

Thank God the stains of that period have been extinguished by German blood, and the Gordian knot Lord Palmerston so ably tied out of the Schleswig Holstein question by means of the London Protocol of 1852, has since been 'cut' by the Bismarck policy.

As for the other favourite topics of 'a Dane' German schools, German institutions, German books, &c., I beg to decline discussion. I may assure him that every thing concerning my country is a book with seven seals, until he adopts our German method to learn, to study and to form his judgment. Respecting the ideals of truth and liberty our views are too different for a discussion to be of any profit.

Finally, as for the sympathy of Europe I regret to state, that it is no moral power! That sympathy always sided with the weak against the strong seldom, with the just against the unjust, 'never' with the truly good and noble against the perverse. Germany only aspires to the respect of Europe, and to an honourable sentence before the Tribunal of History.

I remain, gentlemen,
Yours truly,
A German Subscriber.

CONSIDER YOURSELF 'HAMLETED'!

Montevideo, 21st Sept., 1874.

To the Editors of the STANDARD.

Gentlemen,

I was sitting in M'Cotter's this morning reading your paper, when I came across a letter signed 'Taffy, in which he pitches into ship captains as 'snobs.' Now, gentlemen, I perhaps cannot write a long-winded yarn like Taffy, mixed up with a lot of Latin and stuff, but I'm a plain-spoken man and mean what I say.

I hope he remembers the old song—

"Taffy was a Welshman, Taffy was a thief,
Taffy came to my ship and stole a piece of beef."

As for—

"If we got what we deserve, who would 'scape a whipping?"

as that ranting idiot Hamlet said, there are two opinions as to that, though as regards Taffy it is true enough; and if I only could lay hands on him, I'd Hamlet him with a rope's end.

Respectfully yours,
A Ship Captain.

ON 'CHANGE.

The Cedula market suffered a severe fall to-day, owing to the number of sellers from all quarters. The story ye terday was that the bears were borrowing Cedulas at high rates to fill their contracts, but to-day all this was changed and so weak is the market that although the total sales of the day only amounted to 287,000, the market is shaken just as much as if the sales were millions. How far this fall is to go is the question. All the heavy sellers for the end of the month at 83 and over have bought in, and still the stock is offered freely on all sides. Many parties attribute this severe drop in the stock to the very alarming rumours current about revolution, &c., but the real truth seems to be that the stock floating in the market, say five millions, is too much for the Bolsa, and too easily brought on the market. At half-past four p.m. sellers were offering on all sides for the end of October at 80½, and for the end of the month at 81½.

The market was somewhat refreshed by Mr. Carvalho with telegrams from Rio; they will be found in our telegraph column. Mr. Rossi, the agent of the American Telegraph Company in Montevideo, has left for Rio, and Mr. G. R. Gepp has been named to succeed him. Mr. Gepp is both active and intelligent, and just the man for the post.

The Woodgate Antwerp steamer Lacydon cleared to-day for Antwerp, she takes

5,000 dry hides,
600 bales,
200 bales Paraguayan tobacco.

The R. M. steamer Minho was looked for to-day, as the telegram says she left Rio on 17th. The Moreno which entered Montevideo to-day has brought her news.

The sales to-day were—

Sellers offering for end month 81⅝, no buyers.

Exchange rules to-day takers 49¼, and drawers bank 49; commercial 49½. We heard on 'Change that one private bank took a large amount to-day at 49¼, and in the afternoon it was said that one of the banks had stopped drawing at 49.

Respecting the sale advertized of the stock on the Thwaites estancia, we hear the land will not be sold, but only the stock.

Telegrams from Lisbon, September 8th, announce the Ville de Bahia, for Plate, sailed.

As regards money discount brokers report money abundant enough, and first class bills done at 8 and 9 per cent. We hear that at the Provincial Bank within the last few days the receipts have been very heavy, over six hundred thousand patacons.

The arrival of the s.s. Moreno gave room for the supposition that she brought fresh telegraphic dates from Europe, and telegrams with dates from London to the 13th were put up on the Bolsa; but this was an error, as so far back as last Friday we had telegraphic news from Pernambuco and London, brought by steamer to Bahia to the 15th September, and on the following day both Mr. Carvalho and Mr. Weaver reported London telegrams to the 16th. As regards the news, it comes in such a confused and irregular way that it is for the most part a repetition of what we already know. The affair about the Circassia, and the German gunboats on the coast of Spain, we had here more than a week ago. By letter from Rio we learn that much dissatisfaction is expressed at the present telegraphic communication between Rio and the River Plate, but that until the sea cable is laid there can be no improvement, and that will not be before the end of the year.

The Montevidean papers this morning bring up the fresh news that the proposed local loan, which has fallen through, was nothing more than an advance by the Mercantile Bank of 600,000 pats. to the government, on a mortgage on the old market. The business is now no longer with the Mercantile Bank, and the papers say Sr. Estevez, and other city merchants, are about to make the advance.

The Democracia welcomes Mr. Charles Jackson on the Montevidean Bolsa, and hopes that as Mr. Jackson is an Inspector of the Central Uruguay Railway, he will go over the road and see what the line requires in the shape of rolling stock, make a small loan for the purchase of new engines, waggons, &c. The present traffic on the line, our colleague says, gives 1,200 pats. per day.

Montevidean merchants, it seems, have received some splendid telegrams, that have put exporters in good humour.

The Montevideon Gov. has just paid the London and River Plate Bank over one hundred thousand dollars fuertes for balance due the bank.

The French packet Mendoza brought out 125 passengers.

On Thursday the auction of 113 shares of the New Sultana Co. comes off on the steps of the Montevideon Bolsa. Also 37 shares Compañia Uruguaya Navegacion de Vapor, and 5 shares of Credito Hipotecario. To-morrow (Wednesday) 200 tons of steam coal ex Mysterious Star, will be sold in Montevideo by order of H. B. M. Consul.

The new Juez de Paz of Flores, Mr. N. Darr, is each day giving greater proof of his great energy and aptabitity to the post. He has directed Mr. Amespil, the well known tanner, who is Treasurer of the Municipality, to publish every week a statement of accounts. By the last accounts published we note that the Flores Municipality has a capital 'entrada' and some 50,000 m/c. cash on hand, which shows something. All the old questions about land &c. before the Municipality Mr. Darr is clearing off. In the question pending between the Diaz heirs and Sr. Duportal the Judge has named Dr. Alcobendas to look into the matter and give his opinion. All the owners of property on the Flores road have received citations to make sidewalks before their properties; in another week the time allowed for beginning the work will be out, and then the Municipality will take the work in hand its self. We mention all these matters to show how much a good, willing and active Juez de Paz is able to do when we have the right man in the right place.

The returns of the Guaregua chu Custom House show for the month of August receipts amounting to 7632 pats, which for the present season is not bad.

An English merchant to-day, referring to the statement in to-day's STANDARD of goods being in the Custom House some 10 months, informs us that there are goods to his knowledge now ten years in the Custom House at least in the books of the firm and of the Custom House, they stand as still in the the Custom House, pleasant feature this.

The sale of 400 Mutual Gas shares is reported on 'Change, bought for account of a foreign order. The old Gas Co. shares that are held in Europe stand in very bad repute, owing to the great irregularity for the last three years in the payment of th dividend.

The Financier, one of the principal London financial organs, in treating of Mr. Gardner's pamphlet on Uruguay and its proposed new loan, says—

"The results of an examination of the figures given are far from satisfactory. The public debt has been increasing at an alarming rate, and it is further discouraging to observe that this debt has arisen, not from expenditure on reproductive works, but from the unfortunate political embroilments in which the country has been involved, owing partly to its geographic position, which renders it a convenient battle-field whereon its more powerful neighbors have fought out their differences, but more especially to the almost incessant internecine strife which has been carried on for many years past between two opposing factions within the country. Since the declaration of independence, in 1830, the history of Uruguay has been a record of almost uninterrupted civil war, 'from two to three years being the maximum period of peace,' and this may, no doubt, explain sufficiently the cause of her present financial difficulties. It appears that the public debt of Uruguay at the date of the last published returns was more than three and a half times greater than in 1867, no less than £6,454,000, or equivalent to about £13 per head of the population, having been borrowed in the six years, a relative rate of increase probably unparalleled in the history of any other country in the world. It is, however, by comparing the annual charge on account of this debt in Uruguay with the charges imposed on the inhabitants of other countries, that we find the most striking proof of the severity of the burden—

The charge per head in Uruguay is	57/s.
" " France	18
" " England	1 3
" " Italy	12
" " Chile	6½
" " Brazil	6

"Thus the amount of taxation which has to be raised in Uruguay for the service of the Public Debt is more than nine times the amount raised in the neighbouring Empire of Brazil, in proportion to the relative population of the two countries, and considerably more than four times the amount paid per head in England."

This Gardner pamphlet has caused great notice in London, but we note according to the latest quotations in the London papers that Uruguayan stock which was so depressed is recovering.

It was announced on 'Change to-day that Dr. Tejedor, Minister of Foreign Affairs will not now leave for Brazil as proposed.

The rain continues, and from all quarters of the camp we hear nothing but complaints about the floods outside; all the low Southern camps are the worst off. Even in the North the sheep-farmers say now they are getting too much rain and too much grass, and owing to the state of the weather the shearing season this year will be put back several weeks.

Our South market reporter, ever on the alert, reports several contracts for new wools in the partidos of San Vicente, Chascomus, Pila and Papalque, the prices ranging from 68 to 76; these are the first contracts we have heard of. Up to the present no wool buyers from town have made their appearance outside, and it is thought that the bulk of the wool will this year be sold in the market by the grower.

The best news from Europe by this mails is beyond question that referring to the Harvest prospects. We extract the following from the Export Mercantile Advertiser:—

"All accounts agree that the Wheat Crop of 1874 will be remembered as a most remarkable one. In England we can as yet only hope—with every confidence, it is true—that the Harvest will be memorable for abundance. But from every other part of the wheat-growing area the matter is no longer one of hope, but one of certainty. Taking France first, well informed correspondents predict that whereas last year France had to import wheat and flour to the value of £12,000,000, this year she will be able to export between £3,000,000 and £4,000,000 worth of wheat. "Quality splendid and quantity satisfactory", is the report from the great French wheat growing districts. Flour, which at the beginning of the year was 81½ francs, has fallen to 77 francs, the price for delivery at two months being 64½ francs. France has been swept so very clear of corn that for the moment she will want all she grows for home consumption. But by November, or at latest December, it is anticipated that French wheat will begin to flow into this country. The importance to us in England that wheat should be plentiful in France is very great indeed, and has fully been set forth by Mr. Baird on several occasions. A bad harvest in France means not only that we do not get French corn, but that France becomes a competitor in the American and Russian markets, and carries off corn which would otherwise come to this country. It means also that she must lessen her demand for imports from this country. But France is not the only land whence good news comes with regard to the harvest. The United States are sending over no less satisfactory tidings. The first samples of the new crop are described as 'superb' in quality, averaging 58 to 65 to the bushel. Nor is this by any means all; for the amount of their land under corn is greater this year than it was last by 2,000,000 acres, and a yield of 6 per cent above that of last year is anticipated. From South Russia, from Hungary, from Italy, from Germany, reports of a similar character have been received. Everywhere it is the same—abundance and excellence in quality. It is not to be wondered at, then, that wheat which reached 63/9 per quarter last February, and flour which stood as high as 53/6 a sack, should have fallen to 60/10 and 50/6 respectively.

"Now, when we consider that corn is, speaking broadly and to some extent inexactly, the only thing of value in the world, the thing of which all other articles of commerce are practically mere symbols or tokens, and that plenty of corn means plenty to spend in every branch of commerce and manufacture, the impetus which a good harvest all over the world gives to industry and commercial enterprise is seen at once to be remarkable. Plenty abroad may, of course, be to some extent neutralised by a bad harvest at home; but when abundance abroad and plenty at home are found together, the amount of prosperity to be apprehended in every branch of commercial activity becomes very great indeed. It is not merely that bread will be cheap, but that to every sovereign employed or invested an additional purchasing power will be given by the abundance of that commodity which men must buy before they can spare a farthing for anything else. Yet, though we share in the prosperity of the world, we are in one respect not so well off as our French neighbours; they are not promising themselves cheap bread, but they are looking forward to the excellence of the wine for which the 'Comet year' is expected to be remarkable."

There was little or nothing in the morning papers yesterday about the rumoured fizzle in the provinces, so we suppose the affair is a mere flash in the pan.

There was a mad dog flare-up in Calle Parque on Monday. The people in the street fled right and left howling with terror, and there was a fearful 'barullo' till the 'almacenero' at the corner of Esmeralda stepped out and put two revolver bullets into the brute's head, just as it had its teeth within a foot of his pantaloons.

To-morrow the talented 'chef d'orchestre' at the Colon Theatre, Sr. Bassi, will take his benefit. The ladies who most patronize the Opera House are making a collection 'to gold-medal' the tenor Aramburo on the night of his benefit.

The National Engineers having been quashed by Congress, the B. Ayres Government intends to set up a staff of Provincial Engineers. The Plate is the most amply engineered and auctioneered country on the face of creation.

LAST REPLY TO "A DANE".

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 18th, 1874.

To the Editors of the STANDARD.

Gentlemen,

Permit me once more your columns for the following explanations to throw light on the matter in question and clear away the clouds with which national prejudice and defective knowledge have surrounded it.

A Dane's reply apparently proves that he had only in view the expression of bitter feelings and by no means a calm discussion of facts.

I refrain from giving further details in reference to the matter in question and confine myself to the origin and course of this dispute, and the conclusion that every impartial reader is forced to arrive at.

In your issue of September 6th I published a few lines with statistics taken from the German census of 1870 as well as some other rectifications—never contradicted. A Dane on this account in his article of September 12th blames me for lack of modesty!!—Unfortunately—as may be proved by my original letter—a typographical error had occurred in its publication, the compositor omitting the marked words in the following passage: forming consequently only about one-seventh of the population "of the whole province and about one-third of that" of the duchy of Schleswig. Now every body easily saw, it not the real meaning of the passage, at least the existence of a typographical error; a Dane, however, forged a weapon out of this trifling circumstance to attack me for want of circumspection. His weapon has only turned against himself as well as his former reproaches, the more so as he forgot, that in his first article he had acknowledged receipt of the right tenor of my statements by repeating them! As for my antagonist's capital joke of free country and free and enlightened Press—risum teneatis amici!—for those who prefer a free and licentious Press to the independent Press of Great Britain and Germany, shackled by the laws of public morality and inspired by the spirit of true liberty and knowledge, I compassionate his choice.

My opponent gave some vague data out of his school reminiscences concerning the history of the duchy of Schleswig, the proportion between the differents nationalities, the results of the election in the Schleswig district, the Prague treaty &c., which I refuted or rectified without exception in my article of September 16th by historic facts and reliable data. I beg to state that a Dane has not endeavoured to contradict even one of my statements.

I consequently consider myself entitled to declare as the result of this discussion the establishment of the following facts:—

I. That only one-third of the duchy of Schleswig is inhabited by a Danish population, that therefore the duchy is 'not' pure Scandinavian, as stated by my antagonist.

II. That in 1336 the connexion between the duchies and Denmark was only a 'loose' feudal one.

III. That in 1460 the King of Denmark (and his male descendants of whom the last died in 1863) was freely elected Duke of Schleswig-Holstein on condition that they remained for ever and ever undivided, and that consequently the assertions of a Dane "that the two duchies were only united in 1864, that Schleswig has been wrested in 1864 from the mother-country Denmark and annexed to Holstein" are falsifications of history.

IV. That the conditions of 1460 were broken by Denmark, and that only the 'kicking' of the rights of the united duchies led to their elevation in 1848 and to the war of 1864.

V. That Prussia has taken all necessary steps in order to execute the stipulations of article 5 of the Prague treaty.

As for the war of 1848|50 I beg to return to 'a Dane' his respective question, for as freely as I confess that it reflects no credit on the then disunited and weak Germany. 'A Dane' knows only too well that the duchies have not been subdued by his people and still less the Prussians have been beaten by the same, and that Denmark owed the restitution of her power only to the arbitrary politics of Russia and Austria who forced Prussia to refrain from a national and strong policy, and to disarm in union with the latter power the Schleswig Holstein army in order to restore peace.

Thank God the stains of that period have been extinguished by German blood, and the Gordian knot Lord Palmerston so ably tied out of the Schleswig Holstein question by means of the London Protocol of 1852, has since been 'cut' by the Bismarck policy.

As for the other favourite topics of 'a Dane' German schools, German institutions, German books, &c., I beg to decline discussion. I may assure him that every thing concerning my country is a book with seven seals, until he adopts our German method to learn, to study and to form his judgment. Respecting the ideals of truth and liberty our views are too different for a discussion to be of any profit.

Finally, as for the sympathy of Europe I regret to state, that it is no moral power! That sympathy always sided with the weak against the strong seldom, with the just against the unjust, 'never' with the truly good and noble against the perverse. Germany only aspires to the respect of Europe, and to an honourable sentence before the Tribunal of History.

I remain, gentlemen,
Yours truly,
A German Subscriber.

CONSIDER YOURSELF 'HAMLETED'!

Montevideo, 21st Sept., 1874.

To the Editors of the STANDARD.

Gentlemen,

I was sitting in M'Cotter's this morning reading your paper, when I came across a letter signed 'Taffy, in which he pitches into ship captains as 'snobs.' Now, gentlemen, I perhaps cannot write a long-winded yarn like Taffy, mixed up with a lot of Latin and stuff, but I'm a plain-spoken man and mean what I say.

I hope he remembers the old song—

"Taffy was a Welshman, Taffy was a thief,
Taffy came to my ship and stole a piece of beef."

As for—

"If we got what we deserve, who would escape a whipping?"

as that ranting idiot Hamlet said, there are two opinions as to that, though as regards Taffy it is true enough; and if I only could lay hands on him, I'd Hamlet him with a rope's end.

Respectfully yours,
A Ship Captain.

The Cedula market suffered a severe fall to-day, owing to the number of sellers from all quarters. The story yesterday was that the bears were borrowing Cedulas at high rates to fill their contracts, but to-day all this was changed and so weak is the market that although the total sales of the day only amounted to 287,000, the market is shaken just as much as if the sales were millions. How far this fall is to go is the question. All the heavy sellers for the end of the month at 83 and over have bought in, and still the stock is offered freely on all sides. Many parties attribute this severe drop in the stock to the very alarming rumours current about revolution, &c., but the real truth seems to be that the stock floating in the market, say five millions, is too much for the Bolsa, and too easily brought on the market. At half-past four p.m. sellers were offering on all sides for the end of October at 80½, and for the end of the month at 81⅜.

The market was somewhat refreshed by Mr. Caravalho with telegrams from Rio; they will be found in our telegraph column. Mr. Rossi, the agent of the American Telegraph Company in Montevideo, has left for Rio, and Mr. G. R. Gepp has been named to succeed him. Mr. Gepp is both active and intelligent, and just the man for the post.

The Woodgate Antwerp steamer Lacydon cleared to-day for Antwerp, she takes

5,000 dry hides,
600 bales,
200 bales Paraguayan tobacco.

The R. M. steamer Minho was looked for to-day, as the telegram says she left Rio on 17th. The Moreno which entered Montevideo to-day has brought her news.

The sales to-day were—

Cedulas.

Exchange rules to-day takers 49¼, and drawers bank 49; commercial 49½. We hear don 'Change that one private bank took a large amount to-day at 49¼, and in the afternoon it was said that one of the banks had stopped drawing at 49.

Respecting the sale advertized of the stock on the Thwaites estancia, we hear the land will not be sold, but only the stock.

Telegrams from Lisbon, September 8th, announce the Ville de Bahia, for Plate, sailed.

As regards money discount brokers report money abundant enough, and first class bills done at 8 and 9 per cent. We hear that at the Provincial Bank within the last few days the receipts have been very heavy, over six hundred thousand patacons.

The arrival of the s.s. Moreno gave room for the supposition that she brought fresh telegraphic dates from Europe, and telegrams with dates from London to the 13th were put up on the Bolsa; but this was an error, as so far back as last Friday we had telegraphic news from Pernambuco and London, brought by steamer to Bahia to the 15th September, and on the following day both Mr. Carvalho and Mr. Weavor reported London telegrams to the 16th. As regards the news, it comes in such a confused and irregular way that it is for the most part a repetition of what we already know. The affair about the Circassia, and the German gunboats on the coast of Spain, we had here more than a week ago. By letter from Rio we learn that much dissatisfaction is expressed at the present telegraphic communication between Rio and the River Plate, but that until the sea cable is laid there's can be no improvement, and that will not be before the end of the year.

The Montevidean papers this morning bring up the fresh news that the proposed local loan, which has fallen through, was nothing more than an advance by the Mercantile Bank of 600,000 pats. to the government, on a mortgage on the old market. The business is now no longer with the Mercantile Bank, and the papers say Sr. Esteves, and other city merchants, are about to make the advance.

The Democracia welcomes Mr. Charles Jackson on the Montevidean Bolsa, and hopes that as Mr. Jackson is an Inspector of the Central Uruguay Railway, he will go over the road and see what the line requires in the shape of rolling stock, in the small loan for the purchase of new engines, waggons, &c. The present traffic on the line, our colleague says, gives 1,200 pats per day.

Montevidean merchants, it seems, have received some splendid telegrams, that have put exporters in good humour.

The Montevidean Gov. has just paid the London and River Plate Bank over one hundred thousand dollars fuertes for balance due the bank.

The French packet Mendoza brought out 125 passengers.

On Thursday the auction of 113 shares of the New Sattena Co. comes off on the steps of the Montevideon Bolsa. Also 37 shares Compañia Uruguaya Navegacion do Vapor, and 5 shares of Credito Hipotecario. To-morrow (Wednesday) 200 tons of steam coal ex Mysterious Star, will be sold in Montevideo by order of H.B.M. Consul.

The new Juez de Paz of Flores, Mr. N. Dorr, is each day giving greater proof his great energy and aptability to the post. He has directed Mr. Amespil, the well known tanner, who is Treasurer of the Municipality, to publish every week a statement of accounts. By the last accounts published we note that the Flores Municipality has a capital 'entrada' and some 20,000 m/c. cash on hand, which shows something. All the old questions about land &c. before the Municipality Mr. Dorr is clearing off. In the question pending between the Diaz heirs and Sr. Duportal the Judge has named Dr. Alcobendas to look into the matter and give his opinion. All the owners of property on the Flores road have received citations to make sidewalks before their properties; in another week the time allowed for beginning the work will be out, and then the Municipality will take the work in hand its If. We mention all these matters to show how much a good, willing and active Juez de Paz is able to do when we have the right man in the right place.

The returns of the Guazegua chú Custom House show for the month of August receipts amounting to 7632 pats, which for the present season is not bad.

An English merchant to-day, referring to the statement in to-day's STANDARD of goods being in the Custom House some 10 months, informs us that there are goods to his knowledge now ten years in the Custom House at least in the books of the firm and of the Custom House, they stand as still in the the Custom House, pleasant feature this.

The sale of 400 Mutual Gas shares is reported on 'Change, bought for account of a foreign order. The old Gas Co. shares that are held in Europe stand in very bad repute, owing to the great irregularity for the last three years in the payment of the dividend.

The Financier, one of the principal London financial organs, in treating of Mr. Gardner's pamphlet on Uruguay and its proposed new loan, says—

"The results of an examination of the figures given are far from satisfactory. The public debt has been increasing at an alarming rate, and it is further discouraging to observe that this debt has arisen, not from expenditure on reproductive works, but from the unfortunate political embroilments in which the country has been involved, owing partly to its geographical position, which renders it a convenient battle-field whereon its more powerful neighbors have fought out their differences, but more especially to the almost incessant internecine strife which has been carried on for many years past between two opposing factions within the country. Since the declaration of independence, in 1830, the history of Uruguay has been a record of almost an uninterrupted civil war, 'from two to three years being the maximum period of peace,' and this may, no doubt, explain sufficiently the cause of her present financial difficulties. It appears that the public debt of Uruguay at the date of the last published returns was more than three and a half times greater than in 1867, no less than £6,454,000, or equivalent to about £13 per head of the population, having been borrowed in the six years, a relative rate of increase probably unparalleled in the history of any other country in the world. It is, however, by comparing the annual charge on account of this debt in Uruguay with the charges imposed on the inhabitants of other countries, that we find the most striking proof of the severity of the burden—

The charge per head in Uruguay is	67⅛.
" "	France	18
" "	England	1 3
" "	Italy	12
" "	Chile	6¼
" "	Brazil	6

"Thus the amount of taxation which has to be raised in Uruguay for the service of the Public Debt is more than nine times the amount raised in the neighbouring Empire of Brazil, in proportion to the relative population of the two countries, and considerably more than four times the amount paid per head in England."

This Gardner pamphlet has caused great notice in London, but we note according to the latest quotations in the London papers that Uruguayan stock which was so depressed is recovering.

It was announced on 'Change to-day that Dr. Tejedor, Minister of Foreign Affairs will not now leave for Brazil as proposed.

The rain continues, and from all quarters of the camp we hear nothing but complaints about the floods outside; all the low Southern camps are the worst off. Even in the North the sheep-farmers say now they are getting too much rain and too much grass, and owing to the state of the weather the shearing season this year will be put back several weeks.

Our South market reporter, ever on the alert, reports several contracts for new wools in the partidos of San Vicente, Chascomus, Pila and Tapalque, the prices ranging from 68 to 76; these are the first contracts we have heard of. Up to the present no wool buyers from town have made their appearance outside, and it is thought that the bulk of the wool will this year be sold in the market by the grower.

The best news from Europe by this mails is beyond question that referring to the Harvest prospects. We extract the following from the Export Mercantile Advertizer:—

"All accounts agree that the Wheat Crop of 1874 will be remembered as a most remarkable one. In England we can as yet only hope—with every confidence, it is true—that the Harvest will be memorable for abundance. But from every other part of the wheat-growing area the matter is no longer one of hope, but one of certainty. Taking France first, well informed correspondents predict that whereas last year France had to import wheat and flour to the value of £12,000,000, this year she will be able to export between £3,000,000 and £4,000,000 worth of wheat. "Quality splendid and quantity satisfactory", is the report from the great French wheat growing districts. Flour, which at the beginning of the year was 84½ francs, has fallen to 77 francs, the price for delivery at two months being 64½ francs. France has been swept so very clear of corn that for the moment she will want all she grows for home consumption. But by November, or at latest December, it is anticipated that French wheat will begin to flow into this country. The importance to us in England that wheat should be plentiful in France is very great indeed, and has fully been set forth by Mr. Baird on several occasions. A bad harvest in France means not only that we do not get French corn, but that France becomes a competitor in the American and Russian markets, and carries off corn which would otherwise come to this country. It means also that she must lessen her demand for imports from this country. But France is not the only land whence good news comes with regard to the harvest. The United States are sending over no less satisfactory tidings. The first samples of the new crop are described as superb in quality, averaging 33 to 35 to the bushel. Nor is this by any means all; for the amount of their land under corn is greater this year than it was last by 2,000,000 acres, and a yield of 6 per cent above that of last year is anticipated. From South Russia, from Hungary, from Italy, from Germany, reports of a similar character have been received. Everywhere it is the same—abundance and excellence in quality. It is not to be wondered at, then, that wheat which reached 63/9 per quarter last February, and flour which stood as high as 53/6 a sack, should have fallen to 60/10 and 50s. respectively.

"Now, when we consider that corn is, speaking broadly and to some extent inexactly, the only thing of value in the world, the thing of which all other articles of commerce are practically mere symbols or tokens, and that plenty of corn means plenty to spend in every branch of commerce and manufacture, the impetus which a good harvest all over the world gives to industry and commercial enterprise is seen at once to be remarkable. Plenty abroad may, of course, be to some extent neutralised by a bad harvest at home; but when abundance abroad and plenty at home are found together, the amount of prosperity to be apprehended in every branch of commercial activity becomes very great indeed. It is not merely that bread will be cheap, but that to every sovereign employed or invested an additional purchasing power will be given by the abundance of that commodity which men must buy before they can spare a farthing for anything else. Yet, though we share in the prosperity of the world, we are in one respect not so well off as our French neighbors; they are not promising themselves cheap bread, but they are looking forward to the excellence of the wine for which the 'Comet year' is expected to be remarkable."

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND CO
101--Calle Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keept one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important initution are daily increasing, and already reach very large amount.

Those advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at intérest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following he noble example of their firm in Montevideo, offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Bristol's sarsaparilla
Is prepared in the most scientific manner, by thoroughly educated chemists and Druggists, who have had many years' experience. It is not a simple extract from one article, but is compounded of extracts from a number of Roots, Herbs Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their source in the blood and humors; these different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to retain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Sarsaparilla plants found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical men esteem most. About fifty per cent. of Bristol's Sarsagarilla consists of the concentrated extract, the remainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehetable substances. It does not contain any thing that is dagerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

By having our own agents at he places where the various roots, drugs, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise that constant care in selection which insures uninformity of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition; and it is with the most abiding confidence we say, to be sick of all nations and all countries, that, in Bristol's Sarsaparilla you have a remedy more reliable than any before offered to you, and which will no disappoint you in the cure of.

Salt Rheum, Tetter, Scald Head,
Syphilis, or Veneral Disease,
Nervous and General Debility,
Old Sores, Ulcers, Tumors,
Abscesses, Boils, Eruptions
Scrofula or King's Evil,
Female Derangements,
White Swellings,
Fever and Ague,
Chills and Fever, & Dumb Ague.

As a means of building up the consiitution that has been broken down by the excessive use of Mercury, Iron, or other Minerals, our Sarsaparilla will be found most excellent, and can be administered with safety to the weakest patients. As a purifier of the blood and humors, in the Spring and early Summer, it will the found unfailing. It can be taken freely at seasons, rainy or dry. For some of the above diseases, the use of the Sarsaparilly must be continued a considerable time, especially for those that are hereditary or constitutional in their nature—such as Scrofula: but a faithful compliance with the directions will always relieve and mitigate, and in a geeat majority of cases will effect a complete cure. It will also be found, in all of the above diseases, that a cure will be greatly haoted by using our Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in moderate doses, in connection with the Sarsaparilla; they carry off large quantities of morbific or diseased matter set free in the system by the Sarsaparilla, and in this way facilitate the return to mal functional operations. —e— 46
